Caitlin Phillips, AKA “Harleen Kekzel”: From “SJW” to Christian Kekistan Fascist

Independent media Unicorn Riot has obtained and released a plethora of messages on Discord spanning a vast amount of fascist servers wherein users have organized fascist actions and organizations (such as Vanguard America, now called Patriot Front), talked of murder and violence, and have created racist and anti-Semitic memes. Today, we’re exposing Discord user and Orlando Florida resident “Harleen Kekzel“, real name Caitlin Phillips.

Racism, Anti-Semitism, Fascism, Harassment, and Kekistan Memes

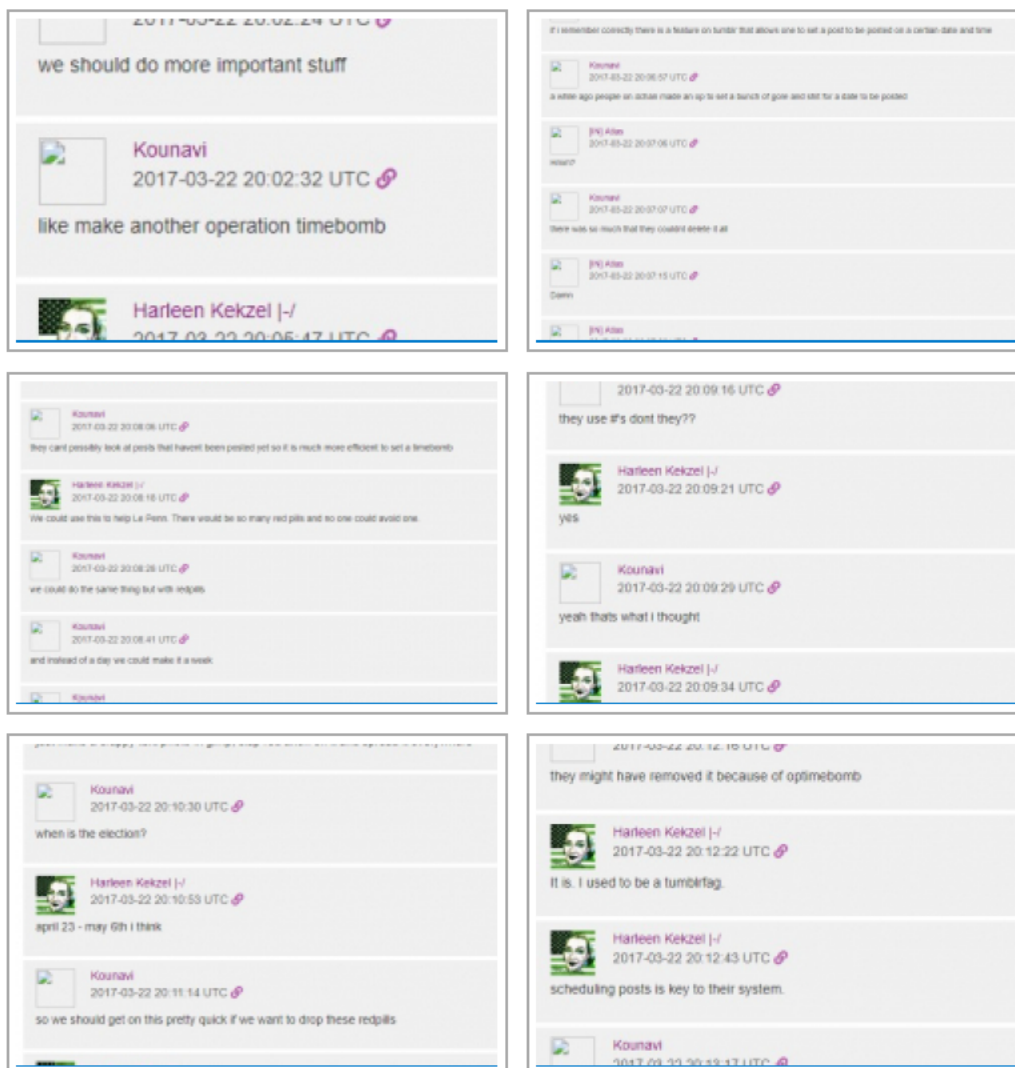

Right from the get-go, Caitlin posts a tweet in the Discord revealing that her Twitter account was called @Enraged_Unicorn, but it has since been shut down. Doing some searches for that name yields these results: a Minds account, a YouTube channel, and another Twitter account, this one is her personal account which links to a PayPal with the same name. We’ll talk more about her social media later and unequivocally prove it’s her.

On the first page of her Discord logs, it shows that Caitlin participated in an internet raid against a young teenager, possibly including their doxx, which was instigated by another Discord user called Stone \(The Fuher\) [sic]. She refused the action at first but then rethinks it, stating, "Being that age, having a friend like that, the more I hear the more I see a pompous little shit who needs to be taught the difference between boys and men."

She also participated in an internet propaganda action in which she and others would make mass alt-right memes and upload them to Tumblr and set it to post on a given day (called a timebomb) to spread “red pills”(propaganda to manipulate and recruit) in favor of “Le Penn,” referring to fascist French politician Marine Le Pen.

Caitlin is heavily involved in the “Kek” and “Kekistan” meme wing of the alt-right, which centers on the appropriated meme “Pepe” and furthers fascist propaganda through internet memes. She even paints her nails with the Kekistan flag, which is a variation of a Nazi war flag. She also shitposts on 4chan, a site known to radicalize people into the alt-right and fascism, and is even responsible for recent mass shootings. Through these memes, she expresses anti-Semitism, racism, the desire to torture and kill leftists and “normies” (those not radicalized into the alt-right), further advocates for Le Pen, and demonstrates general bigotry.

Racism and Nazism

She can be seen in the chats espousing racial and homophobic slurs, and she lets us know that she hates the Jews. It also appears that she had a cat named Hitler, as well as—in her words—looking like Hitler (an odd thing to say at the least), and this cat had a swastika-shaped pillow. She is seen a few times referring to both her son and her husband as being “Aryan.”

There was another occasion she brought up where, in attending school, some Black students in her class were allowed to come in late or be out of dress code with no penalties, while, on the other hand, if she were late or out of dress code she’d face disciplinary action. In the same thread, she also talked about how some Black people were evidently violent towards her and that the school left this behavior unpunished, and that if she were to call them out, she’d get expelled. Evidently, she uses this as a handy excuse to justify her racism. On the one hand, she feigns victimhood about others being late for class and being subjected to violence. On the other, she's outright racist. One wonders, based on her posts in the logs, if the violence wasn't carried out in response to racism. One is also left to wonder that, given that white people can be violent and bigoted and that she likely has faced violent or bigoted behavior from white people, why then she doesn't call out her "fellow whites" for this behavior or have any conversation about the conditions making up violent and bigoted behavior. Conveniently, to her, it's the fault of Black people no matter what and she doesn't need to change anything about her.

In other places, she can be seen spreading Nazi-era conspiracy theories about "cultural Marxists."

From "SJW" to Kekistani Fascist

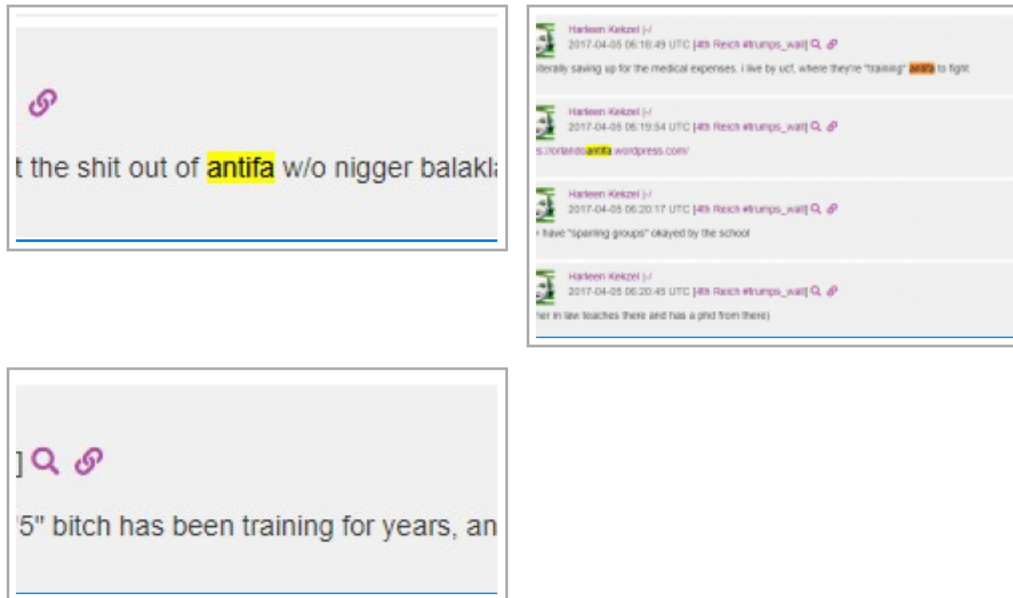

It appears that Caitlin used to be an "SJW" and a "polyamorous genderqueer masculine leaning pansexual" as a teenager. She states that around 2001 she discovered 4chan and later on was "conspiracy pilled" presumably by Alex Jones. She says that ever since the Pulse shooting, she's been "anti-SJW."

It's important here to notice the radicalization pipeline into far- and alt-right, fascist ideology. 4chan and 8chan particularly have been great motivators for radicalization. In addition, internet personalities such as Alex Jones, Ben Shapiro, Joe Rogan, and Milo Yiannopoulos hold a particular influence of far-right radicalization.

"Harleen Kekzel's" Identity

Let's show how we know that Discord user "Harleen Kekzel" is in fact, without a doubt, Caitlin Phillips of Orlando Florida. There are several solid pieces of evidence that connect "Harleen Kekzel" to Caitlin Phillips. First, she states herself in the Discord logs that she lives in Orlando Florida not too far from the University of Central Florida, even bringing up Orlando Antifa and the fact that they had a sparring group, and that she'd like to commit violent acts against antifascists. Her dad evidently taught at the college, too.

Second, a search for the username "Harleen Kekzel" turns this up:

From the results, we get a link to her YouTube account. It also appears that Bellingtoncat got access to her Discord as well, showing that she was "red pillled" from Alex Jones. The article doesn’t go in depth into her logs but the post has good content and you really ought to read it.

Two more activists on our list credit Infowars editor Paul Joseph Watson with their red-pilling. Conspiracy theories appear to be one of the more well-trodden roads into fascist nationalism. This may have something to do with the fact that lack of interpersonal trust and employment insecurity are heavily correlated with belief in conspiracy theories. In 1995 Umberto Eco wrote that at the center of fascist psychology was, “...the obsession with a plot, possibly an international one.” He believed that this was because fascist believers needed to feel “besieged”.

Whatever the “why,” numerous Discord posts reveal the “how.” User Harleen Kekzel claims to have identified as a “polyamorous genderqueer masculine leaning pansexual” at age 16. She claims her red-pilling process started with Alex Jones.

She explains later that she was “was conspiracy pillled,” but also says she and her husband weren’t red-pilled until the Pulse nightclub massacre. A number of other fascist activists say their journey to the far right started with conspiracy theories. Kombat-Unit, one of the most prominent posters in these Discord conversations, at one point notes his approval of this source of new converts; “if you can get some guys through UFO stuff I’m not complaining.” In response, another user says:

Third, in the chats, she posted this picture of herself.

Searching Instagram for the username "educaited", we find the exact same picture.

A humorous aside: she posted in the logs about OPSEC, stating that one shouldn't post pictures of themselves in the Discord from social media as that can directly lead to doxxing. But as shown, she went on to post pictures in the Discord directly from social media.
